DESCRIPCION

- The villa is organized on three semi levels. In the middle, the big living room of which bay windows open on the garden and the swimming pool. Opened on the living room, the upper level is made of an american style kitchen and a dining room. At the lower level, four bedrooms, all with a shower or a bathroom, of which, one is dedicated to the children, including a double bed and two bunkbeds. A fifth bedroom with a shower room enjoys an independant access to the garden.

- California is a typically contemporary villa of which the architecture has been carefully thought. the decoration is perfectly matching with the building's style, both modern and warm.

- The small garden, planted with typically regional species, is well maintained. A beautiful terrace welcomes a cosy summer lounge overhanging the swimming pool.
